GERMAN DELEGATION

COCOM DOCUMENT 3512

Paris, 5th May, 1959

MEMORANDUM BY THE GERMAN DELEGATION
ON A TRADE PROTOCOL SIGNED BETWEEN THE FEDERAL REPUBLIC OF GERMANY AND THE USSR

The German Delegation have the honour to inform the Committee that, within the framework of the trade-agreement of 25th April, 1958 (see CoCom Document 3119), a new trade protocol has been signed by the Federal Republic of Germany and the USSR regulating the exchange of goods between the two countries for the year 1959. The new commodity lists A₂ and B₂ have been published in the Bundesanzeiger No. 41, dated 28 February 1959.

A confidential exchange of letters which forms a supplement to the agreement, stipulates that export licences for the products specified therein, namely :

- 1) Acid resistant and steam-boiler High-pressure equipment
- 2) Special lathes
- 3) Fishfinding equipment of the Ladar type
- 4) Compressors for Methylene Methylchloride and expansion-gas
- 5) Antifriction-bearings

will be issued only after agreement to the specifications arranged between buyer and seller. By this stipulation, the Federal Republic has made sure that only non-embargoed goods will be exported under this agreement.
